Overseas Adventure Travel™
Since 1978

If you feel like walking, immerse yourself in the most European and posh area of Buenos Aires.

Recoleta is a wealthy residential area of great architectural interest thanks to its iconic buildings evocative of Parisian 'petits hôtels'. It is home to fashionable restaurants, cafes, boutiques and art galleries, and its parks and plazas host street performances, art exhibits and craft fairs on weekends.

1 Embassies

French Embassy (1,399 Cerrito Ave.)
Brazilian Embassy (1,350 Cerrito Ave.)
Both buildings were former landlord's families mansions turned into foreign embassies.

2 Alvear Avenue

Ask local why these 3 buildings are known as The Father, the Son and the Holy spirit.
Nunciatura Apostólica (Vatican Embassy) (1,637 Alvear Ave)
Duhau PalaceIt it has been turned into a Hyatt Hotel (1,661 Alvear Ave)
Maguire´s residence (1,683-1,699 Alvear Ave)

3 Talabarteria Arandú

(Open daily from 10am to 9pm. Sunday closed)
Check out what the world richest people shop during their visit to Buenos Aires.
Polo gear, knifes and vicuña ponchos.
Check out the prices!
Find it out asking "Cuánto cuesta?"
(How much does it cost?)

4 Volta

(Open daily from 11am to 12am)
Taste gelato from this famous Argentine- Italian store.
Try Dulce de Leche granizado and mascarpone flavors.

5 Jose Luis Resto

(Open daily from 12pm to 4pm and from 8pm to 12am. Sundays closed)
Tuck away on a hidden passage to find this great restaurant specialized in seafood and some exotic meals like frog, sucking pig and quail.

10 Photo opportunity

(456 Pres. Manuel Quintana Ave)
Cross the pedestrian bridge that connects the parks to the Law Scool and get a photo over Avenida del Libertador.

6 "La Biela"

(Open daily from 7am to 2am. Sundays from 8am to 2am)
Sit down and order a cortado or a pint of beer with a picada while watching locals and tourist passing by.
Find out what famous writers used to always sit at the table #20.

7 Gomero (rubber fig free)

Get some shade & watch people passing by, while you seat under the oldest tree of Buenos Aires.
Check who is helping to hold one of the largest branches

8 Nuestra Señora del Pilar church and cloister

(Open daily from 8am to 9:30pm)
Visit one of the oldest churches of the city from 1732 and check out its main altar covered by silver brought from Peru.
Mass service is available every day of the week.

9 Walking

If you feel like walking, enjoy the green areas of this district.
Start from the church down the street to the wide tree-lined Avenida del Libertador.
Walk along this elegant avenue full of jacaranda trees, where most porteños work out early in the morning.

European architecture & cafés & Parks

Our recommendation for your free time: Discover Recoleta

Overseas Adventure Travel
Since 1978

Pizza & theatres bookstores

Our recommendation for your free time: Discover Corrientes Avenue.

Overseas Adventure Travel
Since 1978

CHE! We invite you to mingle with the Porteños in their daily life.

Stroll down this busy avenue and open your senses for local treats like coffee & pizza.
Corrientes Ave. is very well known for its pizzerias, theatres and bookstores. It is the Broadway of Buenos Aires.

Observe how many theatres there are along this avenue.

Did you know that Buenos Aires is the city with the largest number of bookstores per capita in the world?

Overseas Adventure Travel®
Since 1978

1 Buenos Aires Obelisk

(9 de Julio Ave. & Corrientes Ave.)

Take a picture at the most iconic monument of Buenos Aires.

2 Bar de JULIO

(1,125 Presidente Roque Sáenz Peña Ave.)
(Open daily: From 8:30am to 8pm Sundays closed)

You might have a chance to meet the English speaking owners, Howard and Silvia.
Find out what Fileteado is, and who is the tango singer in the big picture of the wall inside.
DON'T FORGET TO MENTION THAT YOU ARE AN "HINCHA (PRONOUNCED EENCHAH) DE VELEZ" (FAN OF VELEZ SOCCER TEAM)

3 Lavalle SQUARE

(Tucuman St. & Libertad St.)

Walk to the center of the square located between the Supreme Court and the Teatro Colón, right at the heart of the city and ask any • local there where the Synagogue is.

4 Street Book Fair

(At Lavalle Square)

Meet Patricia at bookstand N°17- ´DAINA´, and find some 1970's newspapers.

5 Pizzería GÜERRIN

(1,368 Corrientes Ave.) (Opened Daily from 11am to 1am)

Step into Güerrin to feel more porteño by tasting some italo-argentine cuisine in an iconic pizzeria. Order moscato, pizza y faina.
We highly recommend to order a fugazzeta pizza, full of mozzarella and onions.

6 Alberto Olmedo BORGES & Javier Portales ALVAREZ Statues

(Corrientes Ave. & Uruguay St.)

Have fun taking a selfie with the statues made in a natural scale of 2 of the most iconic comedians of Argentina during the 80's.

7 CHOCOLATERÍA BOMBONELLA

(1479, Corrientes Ave.)
(Open from Mon to Fri 9am to 9pm & Sat from 10am to 10:30pm. Sun closed)

Look through the window and learn how they make chocolate en rama from scratch.
Get inside to experience a whole world made of chocolate.

8 EL Gato NEGRO

(1,669 Corrientes Ave.)
(Open Mon to Sat from 9am to 10pm.
Sun from 12pm to 11pm)

Blow your senses by entering into this 90-year-old emporium, where locals get their seasonings, herbs and condiments.
Don't forget to buy the tasty chimichurri.

have a chocolate con churros or the house tea. They are DELICIOUS!!

9 Heladería CADORE

1,695 Corrientes Ave.
– Opened Daily from 11:30 am to 02:00 am

You cannot leave Argentina without trying a dulce de leche & sambayon gelato from this historical ice cream store founded in 1957.

Strongly reccomended

10 Librería ZIVALS

Dive into this music & bookstore and treat your ears with local traditional music such as tango and folklore.

Overseas Adventure Travel™
Since 1978

We invite you to discover the oldest neighborhood in Buenos Aires, a testimony of its rich and bohemian past.

Keep your eyes open for Notables Cafes, eclectic architecture and many antique* shops.
Stay tuned and listen to the nostalgic melody of the bandoneon coming from shops and bars playing tango.
Follow your sense of smell and dive into one of the many parrillas. And do not forget to taste some Dulce de leche before finishing your walk.

1 Plaza Malvinas

(Alsina St & Defensa St. 1 block from Plaza de Mayo)
Malvinas war veterans' monument.
From this corner have a look around:
a)The oldest colonial architecture in the city
b)Cobble stone streets
c)San Francisco Church

2 Farmacia La Estrella

(201 Defensa St. Open daily from 8am to 8pm. Sat from 8am to 1pm. Sun from 10am to 4pm)
The oldest pharmacy in the city.
Step inside and travel back in time through your senses.
The old fashion scale is still working if you feel like trying it!

3 Bar La Puerto Rico

(416 Adolfo Alsina St. Open daily from 7am to 8pm. Sat & Sun from 10am to 7pm)
This is one of the Notable Cafés (historical cafes recognized by the government).
Don't miss the opportunity to try Florentinos and medialunas (local pastry).
Baños opportunity.

4 Convento de Santo Domingo

(422 Defensa St. Open daily from 7am to 5:45pm. Saturdays closed)
Watch the church from the opposite corner.
Look up and find the second British invasion canyon bullets still stuck on the left tower.
The mausoleum in the atrium belongs to one of our national heroes, General Manuel Belgrano.

5 Paseo de las historieta along Balcarce St., for 4 blocks

How many Argentinean cartoon characters did you find along the way?
Mission: Look for Mafalda! Who is she? Take a picture with her!

Food Resto "CARNE"
(269 Defensa St.)
3 stars Michelin Awarded chef
Premium burger

Don't forget to keep an eye on the Street Art!!

DISCOVERY
Dulce de leche
Try the best panqueques at ´Lo de Carlitos´!
(342 Chile St.)

6 Los Patios de San Telmo

(325 San Lorenzo ST.
Open daily from 9:30am to 6:30pm)
It is a hidden historical building, a great example of the colonial architecture.
Get into the courtyard which was shot in movies like Evita.
Have a look inside and check the bar protected by many Catholic saints.

7 Casa Mínima

(380 San Lorenzo St.)
Great photo opportunity!
This is the narrowest house in the city.
Also, find the mural with graffitis.

8 El Mercado de San Telmo

(950/970 Defensa St or 464 Estados Unidos St.
Open daily from 10:30am to 9pm)
A market where past and present merge in a unique experience.
You can find from antiques, restaurants, a butcher's shop, groceries, bakeries to vintage garments. Baño opportunity.

9 Plaza Dorrego

(Defensa St & Humberto I St)
Well known for its antiques fair. A Sunday must!
Cross the street and enjoy an ice cream.
Try dulce de leche and mascarpone.

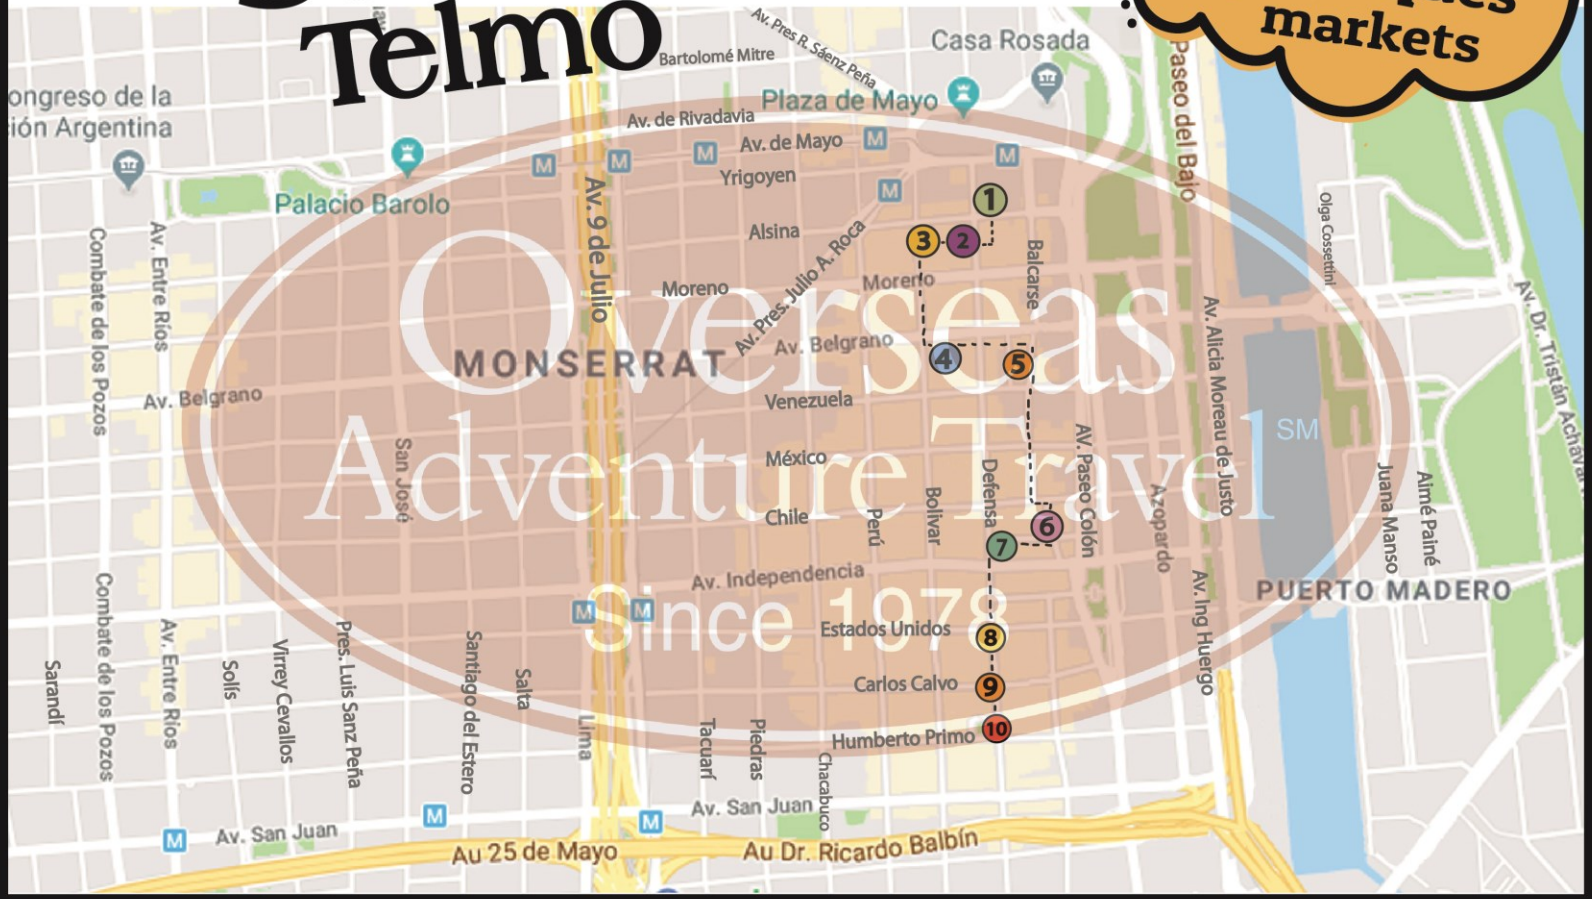
10 Conventillo Casa de los Ezeiza

(1,179 Defensa St.
Open daily from 10am to 6:30pm. Mondays closed)
Typical chorizo house of the 1880's, later turned into a conventillo. Step in and count how many patios you find while checking the shops that offer antiques, vintage objects and some art.

Our recommendation for your free time:

Discover San Telmo

Tango & antiques markets



Overseas Adventure Travel SM
Since 1978